Jan. 29	Feb. 26

MVA On Wheels is beginning its twentyith year of service to Friendship Heights and the Greater Chevy Chase area.

Early Notice: The next bulk trash pickup will be Saturday March 17.

Neighborhood Yard Sale: The next neighborhood yard sale is scheduled for Saturday April 21. To pull it off this time, we need a few volunteers to help with PR and signs. If you wish to help, please call Ingrid Dallaire at 301-455-6962 or email her at Ingrid.Dallaire@LongandFoster.com.

If You Smell Natural Gas: If you smell natural gas, call the Washington Gas Emergency Leak Line at 703-750-1400. Do not attempt to locate the source of the odor. If the odor is very strong, or you hear a blowing or hissing noise, vacate the building immediately, leaving the doors unlocked as you go. Do nothing to create an ignition source - do not light a match, use the telephone, turn electrical equipment or light switches on or off, or start your car. Call 911 and the Washington Gas emergency numbers only after you have reached a safe distance away from the source of the leak.

Have Your Chimney Inspected: The Montgomery County Division of Consumer Affairs (DCA) advises that chimney fires and clogged flues can be prevented by regular chimney inspections and cleanings. Having your chimney inspected is as important as having your furnace and heating system inspected. The simple steps you can take include:

- Contact a licensed/certified chimney sweep. Signs of a dangerous chimney include cracks in masonry, poor updraft, broken flue sections and creosote accumulation.
- Check to see if the chimney sweep is licensed by the Maryland Home Improvement Commission. Ask neighbors for referrals, check DCA's complaint records at 240-777-3636 or check the Better Business Bureau's records at 202-393-8000.
- Have the chimney cleaned on a regular schedule. This will vary from several times a year to once every several years, depending on how often the fireplace is used.

A Caution: On windy recycling days, please weigh down all of your papers, cardboard and light plastic items. The slight extra effort saves chasing debris all over the neighborhood. This is not a problem with the large recycling bins, but can be a nuisance if cardboard or other large items are added. Also, remember that the trash collectors will pick up trash from side yards, so trash cans do not need to be brought to the curb.
